

Interactive Academic English Course

Prepare Yourself for University English

Are you stressed because of your current level of English?
Do you find it difficult to express your ideas in English?
Are your grades and academic performance affected due to poor English skills?

Then it's the right time to give an edge to your English skills. Academic English is different from everyday English. It's the advanced level of English which is required for formal presentations, viva, university exam, e-mail writing, job interviews, discussions, report writing, delivering a talk and dissertation writing etc. Luckily, you don't have to go anywhere to improve your college English. AGACE has introduced a course in Academic English for you. This course will help you raise your English level and prepare you for English challenge in the academic and professional setting.

AGACE Advantage

Academy for Graduate Admissions and Competitive Examinations (AGACE) offers courses to hone your test taking and academic skills. Having achieved a profound response to IELTS, TOEFL and GRE coaching, we are introducing another essential course to enhance your English Skills.

This systematically designed course provides a solid framework for language acquisition and matches the need of all levels of learners. Our aim is not merely to teach you some expressions and words but to make you a competent English user and a lifetime learner. Contrary to the belief of Spoken English courses in the market, this course provides all round four skills (LSRW) language learning.

- develop advanced level English vocabulary
- acquire the art of formal presentation and conversation skills
- learn to write effectively without errors
- take a step towards preparation of IELTS, TOEFL and other tests
